President:

H.R.H. the DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, K.G.

Treasurer:

CHARLES FINCH FOSTER, Esq.

Chairman of Committee: WILLIAMSON LAMPLOUGH, Esq.

Vice-Chairmen:
Sir Andrew Wingate.

Major-General Sir G. K. SCOTT-MONCRIEFF.

The Vice-Presidents include the Archbishops of Canterbury, York, and Wales; twenty English and Welsh diocesan bishops; and representative leaders of the Free Churches; together with such distinguished laymen as the Duke of Devonshire; Field-Marshal Earl Haig; Lord Shaw of Dunfermline; Lord Robert Cecil, M.P.; the Right Hon. John Hodge, M.P.; the Astronomer Royal; Sir Frederic G. Kenyon; Sir Charles Stewart Addis; Sir George A. Grierson; Sir Thomas Barlow; Sir Michael E. Sadler; Sir J. D. McClure; and Sir Alfred Pearce Gould.

The Honorary Foreign Members include the Archbishop of Upsala; the Archbishop of Finland; Bishop Nicolai Velimirović, of Ochrida, Serbia; the Orthodox Patriarch of Constantinople; the Greek Archbishop of Syria; and the Armenian Patriarch in Constantinople.

The Society was formed in 1804, solely 'to encourage the wider circulation of the Holy Scriptures without note or comment'. It is a partnership of Christian people, belonging to many different communions, who unite to provide every man who can read with God's message to him, in his mother tongue.

Since its foundation the Society has sent out over 320,000,000 copies of the Scriptures. It has printed, published, or circulated at least some book of the Bible in 543 different languages and dialects, which are current among three-quarters of the human race. It is now issuing the Gospel in some fresh tongue on an average about once every six weeks.

The Society maintains depots in nearly a hundred principal cities of the world. Its 900 colporteurs carry cheap copies of God's book into the remotest corners of the earth, and sell them at prices which even the very poor can afford to pay.

It has made the Bible the cheapest and most accessible of books. It supplies the over-seas missions of almost every Reformed Church with the Scriptures which they need. It co-operates with the missionaries in preparing the versions; it prints the editions, bears the loss involved in their sale at reduced prices, and pays the carriage of the volumes to the farthest mission-stations. Its popular editions supply the Sunday-schools and home missions of nearly every Christian denomination, and all the varied agencies of religious and philanthropic activity.

The world-wide spread of education is raising up millions of new readers every year. The vast modern movements of emigration create linguistic needs which no other institution can meet. The triumphs of Christian missions involve ever-increasing claims upon the funds of the Bible Society.

On the whole, out of every £1 which the Society spends in producing and distributing the Scriptures, it is receiving back less than 7s. as the proceeds of sales. The Society stands in urgent need of more generous support from lovers of the Bible, so that it may continue its sacred mission.

Gifts may be sent to the Secretaries, British and Foreign Bible Society, 146, Queen Victoria Street, London.

PREFACE

For four generations the British and Foreign Bible Society has been publishing and circulating the Word of God throughout the world. When it was founded, in 1804, some portion of Scripture had been printed in over 60 languages; 117 years later, the number of tongues in which the Society has promoted the translation, printing, or distribution of God's Book has grown to 543. Specimens of every one of these forms of speech are given in the following pages. Each separate language and dialect is numbered. the right-hand upper corner is usually given a very general geographical note to enable readers to locate the language. Then follows the text itself—as a rule the well-known words of St. John 3. 16. Where these words are quoted, no name of the Gospel is But where that text was not available, the latter clause of St. Matthew 4. 10, or St. Mark 3. 35, or St. Luke 15. 10 (represented by the contractions Mt., Mk., Lk., respectively) appears instead. In a few instances, a text from some other part of Scripture had to be chosen, in which case the full reference is given. The figure at the end of each entry gives the date of the particular edition in the Bible House Library from which the quotation is made.

In certain languages versions are no longer in circulation. The names of such languages are marked in the first Index with an asterisk.

Men write in many alphabets. Moreover the Society has sometimes to print the same version in more than one script to suit different readers. These are represented in the following specimens where they occur; and an Index recording over 60 forms of characters—ideograms of China, ancient alphabets of Syria and India, Gothic and Slavonic letters of mid-Europe, syllabic scripts, and many others—is given at the end of the book.

These details are but the prose of a great vision the vision of learned scholars poring over the Hebrew and Greek originals: of patient, painstaking pioneers in all parts of Christ's Church, listening to strange words, reducing them to order, and then to writing, so that all men may receive God's Message, each in his mother-tongue. In these specimens philologists will find materials for the comparison of cognate or diverse forms of speech. But to the Bible Society they stand for almost 320 millions of books distributed all over the earth during the last 117 years. They picture multitudes of mankind receiving their first and their increasing knowledge of God from such printed pages. They bear witness to the marvellous fact that no tongue, the most crude or the most refined, has yet been discovered into which it has been found impossible to translate that Gospel which is the common property of the human race. And they speak of a work which is always progressing. Once every six or seven weeks some fresh language is added to the list. When we include those versions of Scripture published by other agencies, there are now about 700 forms of human speech in which some portion of the Bible has been printed in order to tell men of the love of God.
